If student participated in previous drama classes, any feedback they would like to offer:

Acting/Performance Experience of Student (not required for any participant/just helpful in preparation for class and material selection—continue on back if necessary):

If parent is interested in contributing their own time or talent to help with rehearsals and/or production, please indicate interest here:

Director's note: Please pre-register in advance by turning in form and payment before classes begin. Though students are able to join as late as the first day of the class, the sooner we know the amount of participants and their skill levels, we will be able to customize the class and materials to their strengths. Class is optimal for 2nd grade and older, as basic reading skills are needed. 1st graders may register if they have previous performing experience. Inquiries can be made to JLWydra@att.net

Forms/Payment ($195) can be mailed to:
